Westminster, December 19.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Honourable Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, within the Space of one Year, from the Twenty Fifth Day of March, One thousand Seven hundred and Fifty two.

An Act for continuing and granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thousand Seven hundred and Fifty two.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

And to two private Bills.

AT the Court at St. James's the 19th Day of December 1751,

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHereas his Majesty was pleased, by his Proclamation bearing Date the 29th Day of March 1750, to declare, That all Passes of the present Form now in being, which had been granted for Ships and Vessels belonging to his Majesty's Subjects Trading in the Way of the Cruizers of the Government of Algier, should not continue in Force longer than until the First Day of April 1752, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with new Passes;) and his Majesty did thereby strictly charge and command all his Subjects, who were, or should, be possessed of any such Passes, that they should before the said First Day of April 1752, return the same (except such as are before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of the Customs at the Out-Ports of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of his Majesty's Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they should furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, as by the said recited Proclamation is directed—And whereas since the issuing the said Proclamation, it has been agreed by and between his Majesty and the Dey of Algier, that the Passes of the present Form should not expire so soon as the said First Day of April 1752, but be continued and remain in Force until the Thirtieth Day of October 1752, at which Time the Passes of the New Form are to commence; except only in the Case of Ships going to the East-Indies, or other remote Voyages, whose Passes are to continue good for the Space of Three Years from the Thirtieth Day of October 1751.—His Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy-Council, doth therefore hereby declare and order, That the Passes of the present Form do continue in Force until the said Thirtieth Day of October 1752; upon which Day the Passes of the New Form shall commence and take Place, except in the Case of Ships going to the East-Indies, or other remote Voyages, whose present Passes are to remain good for Three Years from the said Thirtieth Day of October 1751——And his Majesty doth hereby charge and command all his Subjects who shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, before the said Thirtieth Day of October 1752, return the same (except such as are before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great-Britain, or to the respective Collectors of the Customs at the Out-Ports of Great-Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of his Majesty's Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of a New Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland in lieu thereof, agreeable to the Requisites of his Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Twenty-ninth of March 1750.——Whereof all Persons whom it may concern, are to take Notice, and conform themselves to his Majesty's Pleasure hereby signified.

William Sharpe.

Whitehall, December, 20.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Eſq; His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found neceſſary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Uſe of Mariners; His Daniſh Majeſty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Purſuance of that Order, the proper Officers ſent an Advertiſement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, deſiring him to tranſmit the ſaid Advertiſement to England, for the Information of the Britiſh Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertiſement the following is a Tranſlation.

Advertiſement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships ſailing through the Cattegat, is almoſt waſhed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, inſtead of the ſaid waſting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, ſtanding further within the Land at the Diſtance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21ſt of January, O. S.}}{\text{1ſt of February, N. S.}}$ in the enſuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Courſe through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foreſaid Sand-Hill happen to be deſtroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Caſe a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, inſtead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majeſty's Privy-Purſe, the 25th October 1751.

Naples, Nov. 30. The Eruption of Mount Veſuvius has been very violent, and continues ſtill, inſomuch that Publick Prayers are ordered to be continued for nine Days ſucceſſively, to implore the Divine Aſſiſtance on ſo extraordinary a Juncture. The King has obtained the Pope's Conſent for the Suppreſſion of the Convents of the Order of Benedictins in the Two Sicilies, commonly called Collarettani, on Condition of employing their Revenues in charitable Uſes, eſpecially towards erecting the new Hoſpital which is building in this City for the Poor; and the Fryars of thoſe Convents are to be diſtributed in the Convents of the Auguſtinians. A few Days ago three Parties of Banditti, who have lately infeſted the neighbouring Villages, were arreſted and conducted Priſoners to this City, eſcorted by Parties of Grenadiers. On the 18th their Majeſties and the Royal Family, attended by their reſpective Retinues and Guards, returned to this City from Portici.

Rome, Dec. 4. The neceſſary Utenſils and Materials having been compleated and tranſported from Gaeta to Porto d'Anzio, for repairing that Port; under the Direction of two eminent Engineers, the Pope has ordered a large Supply of Money from the Treaſury for the commencing of that Work. On the 13th Inſtant Cardinal Portocarrero returned to this City from Parma, after having ſtood as Proxy for the King of Spain, at the Chriſtening of the young Princeſs of Parma; and on the 16th he had an Audience of the Pope. It is ſaid that he is to repair to Madrid in the Spring, by Order of the Court of Spain.

Florence, Dec. 6. M. de Vereſt, late Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to the Court of Turin, after having obſerved the Curioſities of this City, ſet out from hence a few Days ago for Naples, where he is to reſide with the ſame Character. Two of the Emperor's Ships of War are diſarmed at Porto Ferrajo, by his Imperial Majeſty's Directions, and their Crew and Officers (the Captain, firſt Lieutenant, Carpenter and Boatſwain only excepted) are diſcharged and paid off. The third Ship is kept in Commiſſion, to be made Uſe of upon any Occaſion.

Parma, Dec. 9. The Infant Dutcheſs was this Morning happily delivered of a Princeſs.

Stockholm, Dec. 10. On Tueſday laſt the Ceremony of their Majeſties Coronation was performed here with that Magnificence and Solemnity as is ſcarcely to be expreſſed. And Yeſterday the four Orders which compoſe the States of this Kingdom waited on his Majeſty, and took the Oaths of Allegiance uſual on this Occaſion, and were afterwards ſplendidly entertained at Dinner by his Majeſty. The publick Rejoicings have been continued for three Days, during which the Houſes in this City were all illumininated, and Fireworks were played off every Night.

Munich, Dec. 12. Laſt Sunday the Pregnancy of the Electreſs of Bavaria our Sovereign was declared at Court, to the great Joy of the Inhabitants of this Electorate.

Dreſden, Dec. 14. The Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, which was thought to have entirely ceaſed in this Electorate, is broke out again with great Violence in ſeveral Places, and great Numbers of Cattle die of it every Day.

Hambourg, Dec. 14. M. Marteville, appointed Envoy from the States General to the Court of Sweden, arrived here laſt Night.

Whitehall, December 21.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Henry Conway, Eſq; to be Colonel to the Regiment of Dragoons, late under the Command

Command of Sir Charles Armand Powlett, deceaſed.

And to appoint Charles Ruſſell, Eſq; to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot, late under the Command of Colonel Henry Conway.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Francis Gaſhry, Eſq; the Office of Treaſurer, and Pay-Maſter to his Majeſty's Office of Ordnance, in the Room of John Plumptree, Eſq; deceaſed.

Mercers-Hall, Dec. 19, 1751.

By Order of the Council,
John Lockman, Secretary.

East-India Houſe, June 12, 1751.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies, do hereby give Notice, That on the 31ſt of December 1751, they will pay and diſcharge all Pincipal Money and Intereſt that ſhall be then due on ſuch of the ſaid Company's Bonds as carried an Intereſt after the Rate of Three per Cent. per Annum from the 31ſt Day of March 1750, and were not brought in and marked as conſenting to the Terms and Reſolutions of the General Court of the ſaid Company of the 25th of April 1750. After which 31ſt of December 1751, all Intereſt on the ſaid Bonds will ceaſe.

Advertiſements.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of his Majeſty's Royal Letters Patent, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

Theſe Powders are ſold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy them for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

N. B. Attendance is given by Mr. Newbery or his Agents at the Amſterdam Coffee-houſe near the Royal Exchange, every Day from Twelve till Two, to receive Orders for Exportation.

This Day is publiſhed,
N° XXXII. Price Six-pence,
And to be continued Weekly,
With His MAJESTY's Royal Licence and Protection,

CYCLOPÆDIA: Or, An Univerſal Dictionary of ARTS and SCIENCES.
By E. CHAMBERS, F. R. S.
Illuſtrated with a great Number of COPPER-PLATES.

The General Character and Eſtabliſhed Reputation this WORK has obtained, is ſufficiently manifeſt from the Univerſal and Uncommon Approbation it has already met with. Therefore, to prevent Impoſition on the Publick, by any Abridgment or Performance injudiciouſly imitating this excellent WORK, and to accommodate ſuch Perſons who do not chuſe to purchaſe the Whole together, the Proprietors propoſe to publiſh it in this Manner.

N. B. All the Cuts will be given gratis, and delivered to the Order they now ſtand in the Book.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by W. Innys, T. Longman, C. Hitch and L. Hawes, J. and P. Knapton, S. Birt, J. Ward, J. Hodges, R. Hett, J. and J. Rivington, T. Osborne, J. Shuckburgh, M. Senex, D. Browne, A. Millar, and by all other Booksellers in Town and Country. Where may be had Propoſals at large.
